PROPOSED AMENDMENT BY CIA TO CIA ACT OF 1949

(8) Add a new section 7 after present section 6 as follows:

"Protection of Intelligence Data

"7. (a) To further implement the proviso of section 102d(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 that the Director of Central Intelligence shall be responsible for protecting intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure and in the interests of the security of the foreign intelligence activities of the United States, the Director of Central Intelligence is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations for the protection of Intelligence Data from unauthorized disclosure. The term "Intelligence Data" means information and materials determined by the Director of Central Intelligence as being acquired, obtained, or used in intelligence activities of the United States concerning foreign countries and foreign nationals, and includes, but is not limited to:

(1) notes, models, instruments, appliances, facts, statistics, analyses, sketches, drawings, pictures, maps, graphical representations and photographs; (2) intelligence sources and methods; (3) reports, evaluations and estimates; (4) procedures, equipment, devices and methods used in the collection and production of Intelligence Data; and (5) classified information as described in section 798 of Title 18, United States Code.

"(b) Whoever, lawfully possessing Intelligence Data as a part of his official duties, before imparting such Intelligence Data to another person, is required to determine and verify that such other person is lawfully entitled to receive such Intelligence Data.

"(c) Whoever, being or having been an officer or employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, a member of the Armed Forces, an employee of any agency of the United States, or being or having been a contractor of the Central Intelligence Agency or of any agency of the United States, or being or having been an employee of a contractor of the Central Intelligence Agency or of any agency of the United States, knowingly directly or indirectly imparts, discloses, publishes, divulges, or makes known in any manner, or causes to be imparted, disclosed, published, divulged, or made known in any manner, Intelligence Data or any part thereof to any person not entitled to receive Intelligence Data under law or executive order or rules and regulations of the Director of Central Intelligence or any agency of the United States shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

"(d) Whenever in the judgment of the Director of Central Intelligence any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of this section, or any regulation or order issued thereunder, the Attorney General on behalf of the United States may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, or for an order enforcing compliance with the provisions of this section or any regulation or order issued thereunder, and upon a showing by the Director of Central Intelligence that such person has engaged or is about to engage in any such acts or practices, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order may be granted."
